GIRLS ARE HELD IN JAIL

Margaret Maasa and Loraine King, two young ladies of this city, were turned over to the police department by Sheriff Wilson, charged with petit larceny.

The complaint against the young women alleges that on August 29, they stole from Mrs. C. P. Dye of West Seventeenth street a certain gold watch valued at about $15 and appropriated the same to their own use.

The story told by the officers is that the two girls visited Mrs. Dye's home on the day in question and while the daughter of Mrs. Dye was out of the house for a moment, they took the watch. The piece of jewelry was afterwards found in a pawnshop where the girls had pawned it for $2. The defendants are now being held in the city jail, awaiting the action of the municipal court.

TONOPAH HAS A BRIGHT FUTURE

R. T. Harris, formerly of Ogden, now cashier of the Nevada First National bank of Tonopah, is here on a short visit. He lately acted as one of the nine directors representing the Dexter, Jumping Jack and Stray Dog mining companies and was an important factor in bringing about a consolidation of interests which promises to receive mining on a large scale in the camp of Manhattan, north of Tonopah.

Mr. Harris says Tonopah is destined to be a mining camp of the first magnitude for years to come, as its mines are opening almost inexhaustible bodies of rich ore.

REACHED A HEIGHT OF 7,054 FEET IN AEROPLANE

Paris, Aug. 31.—In his monoplane flight of last Monday Leon Morane, the French aviator, reached a height of 2,150 meters, or 7,054 feet, according to the official figures duly terminated today. The contest for a world's record for height, eclipsing the mark set by J. Armstrong Drexel, the American aviator, at Lanark, Scotland, on August 12. Drexel's record was 6,752 feet.

AEROPLANE RECORD BROKEN BY CURTISS.

Cleveland, Aug. 31.—Glen H. Curtiss today established a new world's record for aeroplanes flying when he flew from Euclid beach, nine miles east of Cleveland, to Cedar Point, sixty miles, in an airplane, in one hour and 19 minutes. It is the longest over-water flight on record.

TARGHEE FIRE UNDER CONTROL

But Other Fires Are Raging in Remote Districts in the Forests of Southern Idaho—Three Hundred Fifty Fire Fighters Making a Winning Battle

The big fire in the Targhee national forest of Idaho, which caused such consternation and sent the settlers fleeing from that country, has been brought under control in the face of what appeared to be a hopeless situation. Assistant District Forester L. L. White reported yesterday that it had been south or southwest wind did not interfere before night everything would be safe. At that time practically one-half of the twenty miles of fire line had been well trenched and was out of danger. Three hundred and fifty men were at work and it was expected that the remainder of the line would be trenched before nightfall. Thus far the actual timber damage on the Targhee Forest has been small, the fire being chiefly confined to brush, grass, aspen and young lodgepole pine.

On the Palsade national forest in Idaho the damage has been much more serious. There the force has been fighting three large fires. On Darby Creek the fire swept everything destroying in merchantable timber at least 50,000,000 feet of fine fir and spruce. This fire is now under control and is being held by a force of twenty-five men headed by Deputy Supervisor Beam.

Another large fire has been burning on Badger Creek, but is now reported under control with about twenty-five men on the fire line, holding it to the area already burned over. No word has been received for several days from the fire on Birch Creek. Fifty men have been sent to the scene of action, but the fire is remote from sources of communication and it is not known at the Ogden office what progress is being made in the fight against it. However, it is firmly believed that this fire will be confined to the drainage area of a single creek. The fire is burning in a pure stand of lodgepole pine, but the timber is surrounded on most sides by barren regions and divides where, by back firing, the men will be able to make a successful stand against the flames. Assistant District Forester White reports that the boys in charge are "surely entitled to every commendation for they have been at it day and night and naturally are about all in." He adds that the men who have been sent from the other forests in the district to assist on the Targhee will be a great relief to the exhausted fire fighters by shifting the responsibility on the line.

It has been difficult for the district office to keep in touch with what has been going on in remote localities during these days of fire and trouble. District Forester E. A. Sherman received a letter today giving detailed reports on four fires which have been burning in the remote interior of the Idaho national forest. The most serious fire of all is at Brundage Mountain. This fire is being held in check by forty men employed by the forest service. A fire in Chamberlain basin broke out August 20 and when last heard from was reported to be spreading rapidly. This fire is being fought by Ranger Cyrus McCall with a little band of ten men, all he has been able to secure in that isolated district. A third fire, twenty-two miles east of McCall, on Lick Creek, is now making considerable headway and will destroy considerable timber. Additional men have been sent to this fire which, it is anticipated will soon be brought under control. The fourth serious fire reported on the Idaho national forest was on Hard Creek and is now under complete control.

In addition to the foregoing, serious fires have been reported from the Welser, Sawtooth, Wyoming, Salmon and Challis national forests, but in every case the situation is believed to be now well in hand and the fires are being held to the area originally burned over.

necessary to use the knife in order to save his life.

It was decided by the physicians that, while they were operating on the appendix, they might as well do something if possible for the kidney trouble. One of the kidneys was taken from its position, cut open and from it was removed a large clot of blood. This it was placed. Since the operation Mr. Biddle has been getting along nicely, and, though he is about fifty years of age, he feels that he will be permanently cured of the ailment.

CONTRACT IS FAVORABLE TO CITY

Contractor P. J. Moran of Salt Lake, who was awarded the contract for the paving of Hudson avenue, and Washington avenue between Twenty-second street to the Ogden river bridge, states that he will begin operations on the avenues within a short time. He will move his asphaltum crew of men here as soon as possible.

The engineering department of the city is elated over the bargain made with Moran. They claim that the contract price is about $2,000 lower than their estimate. Other things connected with the contract with Moran are said to be encouraging. The guarantee on the job is for seven years, and that for last year's paving being for only one year. The layer of asphaltum will be two inches thick in the Hudson avenue paving and the binding will be an inch and a half in thickness. The binding of last year was only an inch thick and the asphaltum only an inch and a half.

FUTURITY DRAWS A GREAT CROWD

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 31.—With the running today of the twenty-second futurity, worth nearly $40,000, the richest stake to be decided in America, racing in the state of New York will come to a close two and one-half months earlier than usual. The anti-betting laws, which take effect on September 1, caused not only the early closing of the season, but the shifting of the futurity from Sheepshead Bay, where it has always been run since it was inaugurated in 1888, to the Saratoga course.

The futurity, with the grandest field of two-year-olds that ever battled for this historic event, was the magnet that drew one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a race in the northern part of the state.

The running of the futurity will be the climax of the environment of the beautiful Sheepshead Bay course, but in no other way will the interest be lessened, except that some of the horsemen might prefer to have the event run over a straight course.

Bashit, the recognized champion two-year-old filly of the year, will be the public choice in the futurity. She will carry the colors of Harry Payne Whitney, who purchased her at public auction for $30,000. Many race followers are pinning their faith to the Hildreth entry Novelti and Zeus. The former has beaten practically all the field with the exception of Bashit.

KIDNEY REMOVED AND CUT OPEN

Engineer W. A. Biddle has sufficiently recovered from an operation for appendicitis and kidney trouble to enable him to leave the hospital and go to his home. He has been improving rapidly and expects to be able to again take up his work on the road in the course of a few months.

The operation on Mr. Biddle was quite remarkable, the doctors themselves being surprised at the results. He was afflicted originally with kidney trouble. Then he was attacked with appendicitis and it became

INSURGENTS WIN IN IDAHO

Brady Finds a Dark Horse Cutting Down His Lead

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 31.—While definite conclusions as to the result of yesterday's direct primary election in Idaho, are yet to be revealed, there apparently every reason to believe that Congressman Thomas R. Hanna, candidate of the regular Republicans, has been defeated by ex-Congressman Burton L. French. French made the race on an insurgent platform. The re-nomination of Governor James H. Brady seems probable but it may require a count of second choice votes to definitely determine the result.

An interesting development in the situation today was the discovery that Paul Calstone, a dark horse, is running ahead of Barney F. O'Neill, who is the Republican state chairman, has heretofore been regarded as Governor Brady's strongest opponent.

James H. Hawley, Democrat, has won over John C. Rice in the race for the gubernatorial nomination. In the latter contest the support of the liberals figured in Hawley's favor against the endorsement of state-wide prohibitionists and local optimists. E. M. Bowen has been nominated by the Democrats for congress.

Spokane, Aug. 31.—Reports from the Idaho primary election of Tuesday indicate that scores of unsuspected candidates for governor will appear on the records. Jealousies between the candidates led hundreds of northern Idaho citizens to cast their second choice votes for men not mentioned as possibilities, rather than vote for one of the regular candidates.

Supporters of Governor Brady and of Barney O'Neill, both claim the nomination for governor. In case either wins, it is asserted positively will be filed to disqualify the winner under the law forbidding a candidate to pay out more than $7,000 for campaign expenses.

IN POLICE COURT

Jim Jones, charged with conducting a policy game in this city, pleaded guilty in police court and was fined $100.

Thomas Doyle, who pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk, was fined $5, but the fine was suspended, pending the investigation of the police as to the man's past record and condition of his family. Doyle pleaded that it was his first offense and that he was a hard working man with a family to support.

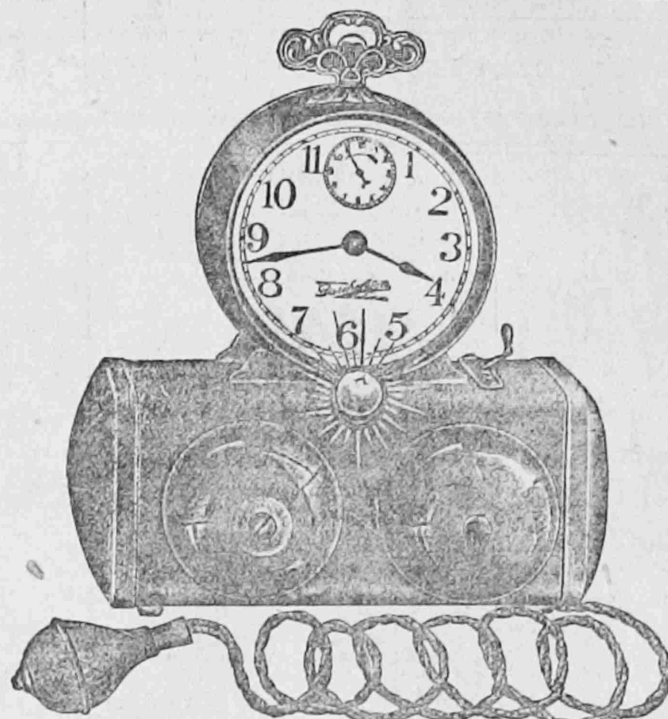

William Buckingham and Sam Detre, charged with being drunk, forfeited their bail by not being present to answer to their names.

Margaret Chisney and Mable Fisher, charged with vagrancy, forfeited their bail by non-appearance.

COURT RELEASES YOUNG PRISONER

SALT LAKE, Aug. 30.—After lying in jail a week Roy Brown, a youth charged under a state complaint with grand larceny, was given his liberty on his own recognizance this morning by Judge Whitaker, because of the failure of the county attorney's office to produce the material witness in the case. The sleuths of the police department arrested the boy on the charge of having robbed Frank Gilmore of a gold watch and a $10 bill. It was alleged by the police that the boy had lured the man to a room in the American house and there he robbed him. The defendant had several witnesses present in court to testify that Gilmore, while in an intoxicated condition had asked the boy to take him to a room and to take care of his watch and money until the next day. When the case was called the police were on hand to swear that Brown, the boy, had robbed the old man, but the prosecutor informed the court that to his best information the complaining witness, Gilmore, was in

LIVERYMAN SHOT DOWN IN STABLE

RUTHE, Mont., Aug. 30.—A special from Wibaux, Mont., states that Frank Nelson, an employee of a livery stable, was shot and killed by Max M. Leakey, who is under arrest and will be charged with first degree murder. Nelson was putting up Leakey's horse, which he found standing in the street near the stable, and entering the stable shot Nelson as the latter was unsaddling the horse. Leakey turned his gun upon Deputy Sheriff Wynn when commanded to halt, and the officer emptied his gun at the fugitive, who dropped to the ground, feigning injury. He was disarmed.
